A close-up, low-angle shot of a field of golden wheat. The wheat stalks are in sharp focus in the foreground, showing the texture of the grain and the feathery awns. The background is a soft-focus expanse of the same field stretching to a distant horizon under a bright, hazy sky. The overall color palette is warm, dominated by yellows, oranges, and soft whites.

We are grateful to the Oregon Health Authority, the OHSU-PSU School of Public Health, and the EASA network for the opportunity to spend time with you today.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the EASA Young Adult Leadership Council. At the top is a navigation bar with links: Home, About Psychosis, For Young Adults, For Families, For EASA Staff, About EASA, and EASA Center for Excellence. A 'Donate' button is on the right. Below the navigation bar is a hero section with a background image of four diverse young adults smiling. The text 'Early Assessment and Support Alliance' is in orange, and 'EASA Young Adult Leadership Council' is in large white letters. Below this is a section titled 'Shaping the Direction of EASA' in orange, followed by 'Decision-Making and Peer Support' in bold black. A paragraph explains that the council is a group of young people with lived experience helping to shape EASA's direction. Below this are four green icons with corresponding text: a line graph for 'Healing and Growth', two speech bubbles for 'Feedback', a graduation cap for 'Educating and Supporting', and a heart in a hand for 'Expression'. Each icon has a brief description of its function. At the bottom, the text 'Early Assessment and Support Alliance' is in orange, followed by 'Interested in Joining?' in bold black.
